FIRE. - About fifteen minutes before twelva dock last night flames were discovered is u from the brick stable owned and occupied Mr. Laopold Gerzberger, in the square ocund by Dake, Wolfe, Royal and Pitt streets. When discovered the flames had nearly burned the inside of the stable. The alarm was given but owing to the horses of one engine being out of service and the time accessarily occupied in getting steam on the other, the water was not gotten on as promptly as usual. The firemen worked nobly however under their disadvantages and soon water was being poured on the burning building and the surrounding property.

Shortly after the firemen got to work, the west wall of the stable gave away and precip tated a ladder containing four firemen into the turning mest. Fortugately all of them succeed ed in occapiog without serious it juries. The men who fell were Messre. Rabert W. Wheat, Columbia, severely burned in breast, back and stomeon and out on the head; W. R. Crockett, Hydraulion, badly turned on both hands, cut and turned on head and neck; B:o. Hughes and Them s Liles. Coumbia, burned op hands and faces. The fall of the wall caused inters; excitement ard rumers were quickly spread of dead and dving firemen. Numbers of persons who had relatives in the department speedily flicked to the come and were most anxious in their cu
